At the welcome cocktail that follows, you can get to know the team: guides, helicopter pilots, etc.

In the afternoon, you can leave your skis behind and go kayaking, paddleboarding, wildlife watching or simply relax with a massage.

A lovely dinner will bring the day to a close.

Enjoy watching the sun rising over Corcovado Bay as you have breakfast.

We then set off for Corcovado volcano which faces the island of Chiloé, with its distinctive pointed summit at 2,300 meters. We will be able to make several fabulous descents before enjoying the usual gourmet lunch to recharge our batteries.

The region is well known for the benefits of its many hot springs. Today we will be taking you on a tour to see them.
